

STAND UP FOR SAFETY WEEK

AUGUST 2ND THROUGH 7TH, 2008

All pilots and mechanics are encouraged to attend a series of presentations and seminars focusing on important aspects of aviation safety. The seminars qualify for credit under the Wings Pilot Proficiency and Aviation Maintenance Technician Programs.

Schedule:

- Saturday August 2nd – Battleship New Jersey, Camden
An all day program of educational events and exhibits in conjunction with the annual Battleship New Jersey Aviation Day.
- Tuesday August 5th 12:00 PM
Mercer County Community College, Trenton (TTN)
Topics: Aircraft Maintenance
Spatial Disorientation
Stall/Spin Avoidance
- Tuesday August 5th 7:00 PM
Woodbine Airport (1N4)
Topics: Aircraft Maintenance
Personal Minimums Checklist
- Wednesday August 6th 7:00 PM
Big Sky Aviation, Millville (MIV)
Topics: Emergency Procedures
Aircraft Maintenance
Aircraft Fuels
- Thursday August 7th 7:00 PM
Hammonton Airport (N81)
Topics: Personal Minimums Checklist
Aeronautical Decision Making
Physiology of Flight - Spatial Disorientation

Visit FAAsafety.gov for more information and registration.